Description

Brain Breaks By Mark Burrows Reproducible book Grades 3-6

Give those tired brains a rest, with this entertaining book of reproducible activities. Each activity has music-related subject-matter, but it is presented in an amusing way that engages students without adding to test anxiety and academic fatigue. Teachers and students will laugh (and groan) together at the clever jokes, and their rested brains will be ready to tackle learning again after enjoying a much-needed "brain break."
